ATTORNEY GENERAL ALAN WILSON STATEMENT ON U.S. SUPREME COURT DECISION

(COLUMBIA, S.C.) South Carolina Attorney General Alan Wilson released the following statement on Monday's decision by the United States Supreme Court in Utility Air Regulatory Group v. EPA:

"Today's ruling by the nation's highest court means unelected federal bureaucrats can't make up the rules as they go in order to advance their agenda. The court partially restrained the EPA's unbridled attack on our economy, thus limiting the harmful impact that would have on South Carolina's families and our energy bills. This is an important ruling and I look forward to joining fellow Attorneys General in continuing to protect the rule of law."
